A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

October is a beautiful month dedicated in a special way to the Holy Rosary, and on the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary on October 7th, we are reminded of the powerful gift we have received through this simple yet profound prayer. The Rosary is not merely a repetition of prayers; it is an invitation to walk with Mary through the mysteries of the life, death, and resurrection of her Son, Jesus.

There is something beautiful about praying the Rosary. When we hold the beads in our hands and begin to pray, we place our lives, our families, our struggles, our hopes, and our loved ones into the loving hands of Mary. As our Mother, she continually leads us closer to Jesus. When we ask for her intercession, we are asking a loving mother to pray with us and for us before her Son.

The Rosary has brought peace to countless hearts and strength to families throughout the generations. In moments of anxiety, it reminds us to trust. In moments of sorrow, it gives us hope. In moments of temptation, it strengthens us. And in moments of joy, it teaches us to give thanks.

This October, I warmly invite every family and every parishioner to take part in our special 2,000 Rosaries per parish through our Hail Marys for Holy Priests Campaign. Our goal is to pray 2,000 Rosaries together at each parish throughout the month – offering them for more priestly vocations, and for our priests, seminarians, and religious.

Every Rosary counts. Whether you pray one Rosary, several Rosaries, or gather with your family and friends, your prayer becomes part of this beautiful spiritual offering. Imagine the power of our parish communities coming together in prayer and placing 4,000 Rosaries at the feet of Jesus through the hands of Mary!

Let us make October a month of prayer. Let us rediscover the Rosary in our homes and make it a part of our daily lives. Take up the beads, invite Mary into your home, and allow her to lead you closer to Jesus. May Our Lady of the Rosary bless our families, strengthen our faith, and help us become faithful disciples of her Son. Our Lady of the Rosary, pray for us!

Yours in Christ

Fr. Joseph

PS: Join us with your family and friends next Sunday for our Octoberfest at Our Lady of Hope parish. In addition to the good food, fun and fellowship, at the request of many parishioners, my artwork will be on display during the festival. Come and check it out!
