A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

Dear parishioners,

This Sunday's Gospel presents us with two sons whom their father asks to go and work in his vineyard. The first son says, "I will not," but later changes his mind and goes. The second says, "Yes, sir," but does not go. Jesus reminds us that what matters to God is not simply what we say, but whether our words become actions.

Our faith is often filled with beautiful "Yesses." We say Yes to God at Baptism, Yes to following Christ, Yes to prayer, Yes to coming to Mass, and Yes to raising our children in faith. As parents, we may promise to bring our children to church, teach them to pray, and help them grow as faithful Christians. But sometimes our good intentions remain only words. When we ourselves stop praying, become irregular at Mass, or fail to practice what we teach, our children receive a message very different from the one we intended to give them.

Children learn faith not only from what we tell them, but especially from what they see in us. If they see parents who make God a priority, forgive others, attend Mass faithfully, pray together, and live with love and integrity, they learn that faith is not merely something we talk about – it is something we live. God does not expect perfection from us. He asks for a true and faithful heart – a heart that remains committed to the "Yes" we have given Him.

During this week, choose one concrete "Yes" to God and make it a weekly family commitment. For example, decide that every Sunday the family will attend Mass together and spend a few minutes afterward talking about one message from the Gospel. Keep this commitment even when it is inconvenient. Small acts of consistency gradually form a faithful heart.

Let us remember: Our "Yes" to God is not meant to be spoken only with our lips; it must be lived through our choices. May our children see in us the faith we want them to inherit. May our "Yes" to God today become our faithful "Yes" tomorrow – and every day that follows.

Yours in Christ

Fr. Joseph

PS: During the month of October, the Diocese of Toledo requests that all the parishes in the Diocese take the "October Count" for our Weekend Masses. I encourage all parishioners to attend the Masses in your own parishes in the month of October, so we can provide more or less an actual count of our weekend participants for the Mass and see the growth of the parish community over the years. Thank you.

WALK FOR VOCATIONS

Pray and Fast for Vocations during the Walk for Vocations September 27 through October 1, the Diocese of Toledo's Walk for Vocations will bring priests and lay faithful together for a five-day pilgrimage of prayer and sacrifice for an increase in vocations to the diocesan priesthood. You can join the Walk with Msgr. Tad Oxley, Fr. David Kidd, and Fr. Joseph Mominee in person for one mile, one day or more. But even if you are nowhere near the pilgrimage route, you can still participate. Take a prayer walk in your own neighborhood, offer a Rosary, attend Mass or Eucharistic Adoration, fast, or make another sacrifice for vocations. Bishop Daniel E. Thomas has granted a partial indulgence, under the usual conditions, to the faithful who participate either physically or spiritually in the Walk for Vocations. However you participate, unite your prayer and sacrifice with Catholics across the Diocese during the Walk, remembering the intention behind every mile: Each Step a Prayer for More Priests. Learn more at toledodiocese.org/walk. Together, through prayer and sacrifice, we can support this pilgrimage and ask the Lord to send more laborers for His Church.

Diocesan Feast Day Novena

Catholics throughout the Diocese of Toledo are invited to pray the Diocesan Feast Day Novena from September 28–October 6 in preparation for The Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary, patroness of the Diocese of Toledo. This year's Novena will be a St. Francis Novena in observance of the Year of St. Francis. Wherever you are, these nine days of prayer are a beautiful way to unite spiritually with Catholics across the Diocese. Sign up at toledoprays.org to receive the Novena prayer each day. If you are able, please also join us for The Diocesan Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary on Wednesday, October 7, 2026, at Our Lady, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary Cathedral in Toledo. The Rosary begins at 6:30 p.m., followed by Mass at 7:00 p.m.
