A WORD FROM THE DEACON

“For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified.”

Words from Saint Paul’s Letter to the Corinthians on this Fifth Sunday in Ordinary time. Prior to his life as Paul, he was Saul of Tarsus. A Roman citizen and Pharisee, having studied in Jerusalem under the great Jewish scholar Gamaliel. Undoubtedly, the privileges that come with being a Roman citizen and a highly educated Pharisee would have defined Saul of Tarsus. And, as we all know, Saul was very committed to persecuting the early Christians.

For Saint Paul, his encounter with Jesus Christ completely upended his life and changed him forever. Jesus called Saul of Tarsus – and then sent Paul the Apostle on mission. With the same determination and fervor in which he persecuted the Christians, Paul then evangelized for Christ and His Church.

Paul was focused on the only thing that matters - Jesus. However, notice before Jesus sent Paul on his mission of evangelization, He first called Saul. He called Saul of Tarsus to experience the supernatural love and mercy...the hope and joy, that can only come from “him crucified.”

We are quickly approaching Lent. We often think of Lent as the season of penance and reflection, and it is. But it is more than that. Just as Paul was called by our Lord, we too are called to “him crucified,” before being sent on our Easter mission.

February 22nd, the First Sunday of Lent, we have the unique opportunity to spend time with the Lord and answer His call. Pat Oedy-Murray has kindly agreed to come speak with us at Our Lady of Hope and help us reflect and pray about the Cross and the Eucharist. Pat’s presentation will lead directly into a Holy Hour of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Pat serves our diocese in many ways, including presentations on various topics to parishes and directing retreats and parish missions. You may know her from Catholic radio where she hosts a show called The Virtuous Life, co-hosts The Morning Offering Show on Ave Maria Network, as well as hosting The Bishop’s Corner on Annunciation Radio.

Please plan to come and begin the Lenten season with an evening of reflection and prayer. We will focus on Lent being a season of joy and hope in the Lord. Discover how our sufferings can be transformed by the cross and the Eucharist. We pray this day will be the beginning of a Lenten season filled with growth that will bring joy, hope and peace into your life.

Peace be with you,
Deacon Brian

The next EPIC gathering will be next Sunday, February 15, in Our Lady of Hope Social Hall following the 10:00 a.m. Mass. The Culture Project will be here to talk about Social Media! All high school youth are welcome to attend.

Sts. Benedict and Scholastica

A pair of holy twins, a cave, and a group of naughty monks... this is the story of Saint Benedict and Saint Scholastica.

Beloved

Beloved Beloved uncovers the mystery and the meaning of the Sacrament of Marriage. What if marriage is more than you think it is? What if God has woven into the very fabric of your humanity a purposeful need and desire that can only be fulfilled in your marriage? Beloved invites all couples to experience firsthand the wonder, mystery, and joy behind that first "I do"...whether you said it last year or many years ago.

Lourdes: Story of Faith, Science, & Miracles

The film follows a journalist, his ancestor who met Bernadette at Lourdes, and the story of a woman healed by Lourdes' waters, tracing three lives.

TRAVELING CHALICE FOR VOCATIONS

This month, St. Gaspar Parish is honored to host the Traveling Chalice for Vocations from the Diocese of Toledo. The Chalice, blessed by Bishop Thomas, serves as a reminder of our need to pray for an increase in priestly vocations. Please join us in praying that young men from our parish and diocese will respond generously to God's call to the priesthood.

A FAMILY PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Father, increase our family's love for one another. May we honor each other in times of happiness or hardship, bearing with one another in love, just as You love us. In a special way, help us strive for holiness in our current states of life. Should You call some of us to the priesthood or religious life, help us to respond with courage and joy. Together, we make heaven our goal, and pledge, with Your grace, to help each other on life's journey to You. Through the intercession of the Holy Family: Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. Amen.

Leading the FLOCK

BY BISHOP DANIEL E. THOMAS

“We’re Moving!”

We’ve all had that familiar life experience: making a move. It may have been the move after marriage into your first home, or after ordination into your first parish assignment. Perhaps the move was from one home to another, even one state or country to another. It may have been a move from high school to college, or from college to a first job, or from one job to the next.

Whatever the moves we’ve experienced, such transitions are never easy, and often marked by challenges. Statistics report that of the top causes of stress in one’s life in a year, a major move ranks in the top five! As I write this column, “we’re moving!” The long-anticipated sale of our Diocesan Pastoral Center to the Toledo-Lucas County Health Department has been finalized, as announced publicly in November, and as foreseen, our major move to a temporary location is underway. We anticipate being up and running in our temporary space by Tuesday, February 3. Diocesan and Catholic Charities services will not be interrupted while in our temporary space.

Our diocesan team had examined and evaluated several possible temporary locations, within the city and beyond, seeking the most accommodating, suitable, economical and practical space we could find. Now we are delighted to announce that we are moving to our temporary space at the Fifth Third Building - One Seagate in downtown Toledo, where our entire Pastoral Center staff will occupy just one floor, the 23rd floor. Our work from this temporary location, for which we have a two-year lease, will also come at significant cost savings! The Diocesan Pastoral Center has long served as the central administrative and ministry offices for all our nineteen-county diocese.

But before I continue, a bit of history is in order. It was in 1957 that Bishop George Rehring sold the then existing diocesan offices elsewhere in the city to consolidate diocesan ministries at 1933 Spielbusch Avenue in Toledo, where the Pastoral Center has been located since. That building was enhanced and enlarged by Bishop James Hoffman in 2002 with a two-story addition connected to the seven-story building.

It was back in 2020, that a Pastoral Center Project Committee had been formed consisting of myself, several members of the Diocesan leadership team, and the Diocesan Real Estate Committee. The Project Committee engaged several professional consultants and conducted a needs assessment and feasibility study of the current Pastoral Center offices, concluding that the space was too large and expensive for present and future needs. This is mainly due to a 47 percent reduction in staff over a period of years, which resulted in a 60 percent occupancy of the current space. Recognizing the importance of responsible stewardship of diocesan properties and resources as provided by the people of God, it became clear that relocating the offices to a more effective and efficient space would be the most sensible path.

Additionally, it was determined that to remain in the existing space for an extended period, significant funds would need to be invested to address key maintenance projects. Recognizing the importance of always being good stewards of our properties and resources, as provided by the people of God, it became clear that relocating the offices to a more efficient space would be the most responsible path. Therefore, alternative options were studied and evaluated with an emphasis placed on existing diocesan owned and vacated properties.

After regular and ongoing consultation with the Diocesan Finance Council and College of Consultors, the Project Committee identified an area adjacent to Rosary Cathedral as the preferred new location for the Pastoral Center offices. This involves renovating and augmenting the already owned diocesan property located at the corner of Delaware Ave and Collingwood Blvd. It was agreed that a move to this location will prove the most effective use of existing Diocesan assets, will result in substantial overall cost savings, will enhance the Rosary Cathedral campus and will enrich the surrounding neighborhood and community. Further updates will be shared as this new Pastoral Center project advances.

As already shared publicly, the source of funds for this project will come from a combination of the sale of the existing Pastoral Center property, Mareda sale proceeds, grants, gifts and other financing. Intentionally, no funds for this project will be from parish assessments, offertory or the Living Christ capital campaign.

So for us, just as for all of you when you've made a major move, there is a mix of excitement and apprehension, of enthusiasm and anxiety, of hopefulness and trepidation. During one of our recent monthly Pastoral Center staff gatherings, I recommended that we all keep in mind four important words which begin with "p" to characterize how we approach this transition. Those four words are: prayer, patience, prudence, and perseverance! In hindsight, I think it would have been helpful to add a fifth now popular "p" word: positivity! As you can see, much work has been accomplished, and there is much still to be accomplished! So do pray with me that our transition be blessed and that our temporary space may serve the needs of our diocese, because "we're moving"!
