A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

KINDNESS AND GRATITUDE

One day, so says an old legend, God gave a banquet for all His servants, and a really grand feast it was. All the virtues came and had a fine time. Humility was there, sitting in the lowest place at the table. Patience was there and didn't mind at all being served last. Faith and Hope sat together on one side, while Justice and Peace sat together on the other side. Everyone was having a wonderful time. At the height of the banquet, Charity noticed that two of the virtues were strangers to each other.

He was surprised because he thought they were always together, and he had purposely placed them side-by-side for that reason. He came down to them and asked each one whether they had met their partner before. When they said they had not, Charity introduced them, "Kindness, I want you to meet Gratitude." Both the virtues were so surprised to find out who the other was. Kindness said to Gratitude, "We are supposed to be together always. Where one of us is, the other should be. Isn't it a pity that we have never really met before." –Yes, Kindness and Gratitude are supposed to be together always. Where one is, there the other should also be.

Dear friends, join us this week at St. Gaspar from Thursday to Saturday in praying a three-day Novena and Mass in preparation for the Feast of St. Gaspar.

Yours in Christ
Fr. Joseph

TEEN faith TALKS

My name is Carmen Schreiner and I am 18 years old. I am a freshman at Bowling Green State University and I am majoring in psychology and minoring in child development. After graduation, I intend to work as a therapist specializing in working with children. My favorite saint is Saint Teresa of Calcutta (Mother Teresa). Mother Teresa's life's work was dedicated to helping the poor, sick, and the dying. What faith means to me is believing and putting your trust in God, even though we cannot see Him or prove that He is here with us.
